

Obituary

Born: Saturday, June 8, 1929

Died: Monday, June 3, 2019

Cecelia Helen Denomme (née Greczkowski) of Jewett City, CT passed away June 3rd, 2019. She was predeceased by her beloved husband, Romeo Denomme in 1989. They were married in Jewett City and were communicants of Saint Mary's Church.

Cecelia (fondly known to many as Sally) was born June 8th, 1929 in Yorkville, NY to her parents Walter Greczkowski and Agata Greczkowski (Brzostowski). She was the 13th of 14 children and was predeceased by her parents, her son, Romeo, as well as all of her siblings: Estelle, Josephine, Ardell (Adeline), Ann, Jeannette, John, Matthew, Chester, Edward, Stephanie, and Marion (Mindy).

She will be missed by the loving family she leaves behind, including her daughters, Cynthia Maurer and husband, Leroy Maurer of Wales, MA, and Marie Denomme of Jewett City, CT; her grandchildren, Roma Hanley, Colin Hanley and significant other, Christina Wall, Aaron Maurer, Maryam Lempke and husband, Jeremy Lempke, and Jamila Maurer and fiancé, Christopher Mason.

She also leaves behind 4 great grandchildren, Layla, Ella, Rowan and Raina, as well as many nieces and nephews.

In her youth she worked at Glasgo Finishing. Many of her years were spent as a homemaker and she later worked part-time in retail sales. She also studied secretarial skills at LaSalle University.

She loved doing handcrafts including crochet, sewing, knitting, and embroidery, all of which she taught herself. She and Romeo would cook together making blueberry pies in summer, as well as vegetable stews, and canned many vegetables and jellies.

She loved her family very much, especially her grandchildren and great grandchildren and prayed much for their health and safety. She will always be remembered for her deeply loving and caring spirit.

May Heaven welcome her home with great love and rejoicing.

Visiting hours will be held from 5-7 p.m. on June 10th, 2019 at Gagne-Piechowski Funeral Home 490 Voluntown Rd. Jewett City, CT. A mass will be held at St. Mary's Church in Jewett City at 11 am on June 11th, followed by a Christian burial at Pachaug Cemetery.
