

Obituary

Born: Sunday, August 9, 1942

Died: Tuesday, June 4, 2019

Randolph Lynn McNicol Sr., 76, passed away on June 4, 2019, in Plainfield, Connecticut. "Randy," was born on August 9, 1942, to Donald and Aune (Ruth) McNicol. He grew up in Hopeville, Connecticut, was a carpenter by trade and loved Cadillac's, cowboy attire, horse-back riding and traveling to Finland with his great-grandmother Ida. He also loved music, singing, playing guitar, spending time with his family and socializing with his friends. Survivors include; his wife Loretta, his sons Randy McNicol and wife Debra, their children Andrew, Chrystal and Kevin, and Mark McNicol, daughters Lisa Bernier and her husband Pete, their children Corey and Aimee, Donna and her children Michael and Stephanie, Randi and her children Lena and Madeline great-grandchildren, cherished cousins and closest friends especially his son in law Andy Vasquez and his family. He was preceded in death by his parents, Don and "Aiti," his brother Glenn Sr., and his nephew "Little," Glenn Jr. and best friend, Richie Fontaine. Donations may be made to a cause of your choice.

Service Summary

Funeral Service

Location: - Not available -